Good populace of the Outlands, greetings from your King and Queen!

At the time that this missive is written, We will not know the outcome of Crown Tourney, making it impossible to congratulate Our successors or to mention the new warlord that will be chosen the following day.

On the second week of October We will be traveling to the Barony of Dragonspine in order to see and learn about the arts and sciences that are so prolific in this great kingdom. Eleanor has declared to theme to be Gothic, but all other areas of interest are welcome.

The Honorable Lady Jorunn, the current A&S officer, is voyaging to foreign lands for a time. We are in need of a new A&S officer. If you are interested in this position please send letters documenting your qualifications to Rhys and ourselves by the end of October.

Latter in the month We will be traveling to Adenvelt with Our Heirs to parlay with Our good cousins about the upcoming Estrella War. Using the good council We have received, We will endeavor to create a treaty that will ensure merriment for all.

Our love for the Outlands is great, but the time is nearing when We must step aside for new blood to rule these wonderful lands. Please come witness the succession of the Stag Throne the second weekend of November in the Shire of Fontaine dans Sable.

Thank you for all your support and kindness over the past months. The greatest treasure We will take with Us from Our experience of being your King and Queen is the expression of true emotion you have allowed Us to share with you.

Long live the Outlands!

For the fighters, we are holding a Pride of Lions tournament, in which the object of each bout is to impress the Gallery, as they will vote on which fighter is the most chivalrous — that fighter wins the tournament. There will be a prize for the fighter chosen by the Gallery. It is a challenge tourney, so polish your armor, touch up the paint on your shield, and think how best to challenge an opponent to honorable combat. Fencers will have a similar tournament, if the weather permits.

We are once again doing bookmarks for the children. In years past, it has been a great deal of work for the scribes, since there were not enough to rotate in and out to give these hardworking gentles a break. Please, if you have dabbled in calligraphy, come out and give us a half hour or an hour in the scribal tent. We intend to have 1500 bookmarks colored before the event, so that all they will need is a name on them.

We need artisans! If you have an art or science that you perform, please make a display to show the mundane world all of the wonderful and special things that we do. We would like to have the various guilds to each have a display — you all work very hard, let us show off what you have learned and created! Musicians are encouraged to attend - music is an important part of our atmosphere.

We will need field heralds, heavy and light marshals, and gentles willing to help set up and tear down. We will need pavillions and garages, tables and chairs. If anyone has propane space heaters, we will need those as well, in case the weather turns cold.

annual Toys for Tots Tourney at Jeanne Bellamah Park. Events will include both Heavy and Light weapons fighting, melees, and other outdoor games. The entry fee will be a new, unwrapped toy. Also, volunteers are always needed.

Stay tuned to this announcement next month for information about the New Mexico Scorpions Hockey game. Last year the Barony was invited to attend a match in all our scorpion regalia. In exchange, the team allowed us to collect toys for our Toys for Tots effort. We are again scheduled to attend a match, but I have no date at the time of this writing. If you missed last year's match, you certainly will want to attend this time. Ask anyone that attended how much fun was had, and this will become a must do activity on your calendar.

Directions: From Boulder: Take Colorado highway 119 north to Longmont. Stay on it until you reach the junction with US highway 287. Turn left onto 287 and follow the "south of Longmont" directions. From I-25: Take exit 240 to get onto Colorado highway 119. Go west about six miles. Get into the right-hand lane once you're into town. You'll come to a junction with US highway 287 (also known as Main street). From north of Longmont: Take US highway 287 south. When you reach Third street, turn right (if you go down a steep hill and/or cross railroad tracks, you've gone too far). Go one block to Coffman and turn right. [] From south of Longmont: Take US highway 287 north. Once in Longmont, you'll cross a set of railroad tracks and then go up a steep hill. The street at the top of the hill is Third. Turn left onto it and immediately get into the right-hand lane. The next street is Coffman. Turn right onto it. [] [*] Turn right into the next available parking lot. The half of the lot nearer the building belongs to the Elks. The other half is a public parking lot, but please fill the Elks' half first.

Site Restrictions: There will be a cash bar - no alcohol may be brought on site, nor taken off site, due to requirements of the Lodge's liquor license. Fighting will be indoors on a wooden floor; please bring appropriate foot-gear.

Midwinter is approaching: a time of celebration and competition (competitive celebrating may occur, be prepared). Thus, it is time to start preparing for a night to remember - those planning on blackmail should keep in mind that such is frowned upon in most jurisdictions.

The site is the Longmont Elks' Lodge, which is a large enough hall to contain fencing, dancing, and feasting simultaneously. The feast will consist of several courses of subtleties, each presented on a sideboard approximately every two hours. There is a cash bar - no alcohol may be brought on site, nor taken off site, due to requirements of the Lodge's liquor license.

This year, in addition to our infamous Caer Galen Musical Chairs (bring your waivers!), there will be dueling sonnets at twenty paces, a mystery A&S competition (the judges have to figure out what they're looking at), and lots of dancing.

The colour is purple - garb, prose, mountains, and passion.

Meanwhile, back at the keep, a new Captain of the Caer Galen Guard shall be determined with an indoor fencing tourney. The fencers will be encouraged not to use feast items as impromptu off-hand weapons, however.

Senatorial elections will be held, and as has been demonstrated by certain previous candidates for Doge, money talks. Please note: We will be polling the populace to determine if the Shire wishes to consider a status change to Province or Barony. All citizens of Caer Galen are encouraged to attend and make their preferences regarding the Shire's future known. The traditional vote for the new Harp of Caer Galen shall be held, of course.

The Saxons fought to save their land from Normans and from Vikings, And so they fought two battles grand at Stamford Bridge and Hastings. And with those battles, England came out from the age of mystery. Come join us at the 12th Night feast to share this time in history.

Good gentles, the birth of the new England
occurred on the battlefields at Stamford Bridge and Hastings in 1066. From the depths of the dark ages, England was transformed into the country we have come to know during the medieval and enlightened ages of the renaissance.

Come join us to recognize this important time in history as we celebrate the Caerthen 12th
Night through the invasions of England.

There will be games and contests pitting the Saxons against Vikings and Normans. Planned activities include boffer tournaments for adults and children, dart tournaments, and an embroidery contest using patterns from the Bayeaux tapestry. Children will be able to "paint" panels from the tapestry as well as enjoy a special event, the Harald Hardrada Pinata (not period, but it should be a lot of fun!!). Other games such as an invasions trivia contest and a bardic competition on an invasion theme will also be held, with the winning bard performing at the evening feast. The best costumes from each of the three factions in the invasion wars will be awarded prizes, with an overall prize for the best costume for men and women. All contest participants will register at troll so that they are included in their events at the appropriate time.

The invasions feast will include items similar to those that appear on two separate panels of the Bayeaux tapestry. Prepared by Lady Aethelind of Erbesweald, the feast will combine the tastes of Vikings, Normans, and Saxons as they occurred at the height of the invasion period. First course of the feast is the Fighter's table, and includes Pork roast, stewed apples, pease porridge with greens, and oat bread. Second course is Bishop Odo's fare, and includes salmon cawdle, blanched greens and plum bread pudding. The final course is "The Conqueror's Bounty" and includes beef roast, honey glazed root vegetables, white bread and barley with pears.

A donation lunch provided by the outstanding cooks of Caerthe and coordinated by THL Arwen Southenwood is planned, with proceeds to be shared between the Fortress and OH publication funds.

Merchants are welcome! However, reservations for space are required in advance as merchant space is limited extremely limited. No merchant may reserve more than one table. Site fees are required for merchants. Contact Lady Killian McKenzie (Dawn Whitacre) at 303 773-9596 for space and requirements.

First Witch. Thrice the brinded cat hath mew'd
Sec. Witch. Thrice and once the hedge-pig whined.

Third Witch. Harpier cries 'Tis time, 'Tis time.'

First Witch. Round about the cauldron go:

In the poison'd entrails throw.
Toad, that under cold stone
Days and nights has thirty one
Swelter'd venom sleeping got,
Boil thou first i' the charmed pot.

All. Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn and cauldron bubble.

Sec. Witch. Fillet of a fenny snake,
In the cauldron boil and bake;
Eye of newt and tongue of frog,
Wool of bat and tongue of dog,
Adder's fork and blind-worm's sting,
Lizard's leg and howlet's wing,
For a charm of powerful trouble,
Like a hell-broth boil and bubble.

All. Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn and cauldron bubble.

Third Witch. Scale of dragon, tooth of wolf,
Witches' mummy, maw and gulf
Of the ravin'd salt-sea shark,
Root of hemlock digg'd i' the dark,
Liver of blaspheming Jew,
Gall of goat and slips of yew
Silver'd in the moon's eclipse,
Nose of Turk and Tartar's lips,
Finger of birth-strangled babe
Ditch-deliver'd by a drab,
Make the gruel thick and slab;
Add thereto a tiger's chaudron.
For the ingredients of our cauldron.

All. Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn and cauldron bubble.

Sec. Witch. Cool it with a baboon's blood,
Then the charm is firm and good.

(enters Hecate to the other three witches)

Hec. O, well done! I command your pains;
And every one shall shre i' the gains:
And now about the cauldron sing,
Like elves and fairies in a ring,
Enchanting all that you put in it.

Sec. Witch. By the pricking of my thumbs,
Something wicked this way comes ...

OFFICER'S REPORTS

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Good Day All,

I have always believed that the best officers in any position, at any level, are those who work hard, have fun, and know to leave while they are still having fun and doing a good job. In the past year and a half I have had a great deal of fun getting to know people from all over the Kingdom and the Known World. I have worked hard to increase the communications within this Kingdom and to improve people's knowledge of what the service side of this great interactive theater is. I am still having fun and hopefully doing a good job. It is obviously time for me to leave. But before I do so I must find someone to take over the job of stage manager.

I say stage manager because I often describe what we do as a great ongoing interactive improvisational play. I have commented on that in past missives. The King and Queen, or at lower levels the Baron and Baroness, are the stars of the play. They should be actively involved in pageantry and ceremony and bestowing awards, and all the cool things that people think of when they think of our Royalty. They should not be burdened with the mundane administrative issues that often seem to drag us down. That is the job of the stage crew and particularly the Stage Manager. Renting the theater, building the sets, costuming, payroll, and dealing with unhappy theater patrons are jobs for those people who have dedicated themselves to getting those jobs done and maybe not getting to be in the play all of the time.

The Seneschal (stage manager) needs to have good knowledge of Corpora, Kingdom Laws and customs. The Seneschal must be a good mediator to ensure that people keep communicating and working out differences. The Kingdom Seneschal must be a good problem solver. Problems show up at any hour, usually without sufficient information to make a decision and usually must be decided on immediately. The Kingdom Seneschal must be able to be neutral. No matter what your personal feelings are The Kingdom Seneschal must be able to argue all sides of an issue without bias. The Kingdom Seneschal must be ready to spend four to eight hours per week attending to the Business of the Kingdom, and able to incur $50.00 to $75.00 out of pocket expenses each month that may or may not be reimbursed. The Kingdom Seneschal must maintain reliable communications. A telephone is essential and e-mail capability is equally important. The Kingdom Seneschal must maintain their membership for their entire tenure. Lastly, and maybe most importantly the Kingdom Seneschal must be willing to travel and be visible. People will come up and talk to a person that they will not call or write to. The Kingdom Seneschal must be where people can approach him or her.

If you believe you have the ability and desire to be Kingdom Seneschal, please prepare and send me your modern day resume along with a SCA resume. All submissions will be seriously considered and although the Crown and I will make recommendations, the Society Seneschal will ultimately make the decision.

Thank you all for your time and consideration on this serious matter

Congratulations to all the archers that achieved their rank advancements, the first batch of scrolls were distributed to the local Captains of Archers at Stagscon.

If you believe that you have advanced a rank check with your local COA and make sure your scores have been reported. Please report all Royal Round scores as it requires an average of three scores in a season to earn a rank.

I would like to encourage everyone to either start or participate in a winter shoot competition. We all need to keep are skills sharp for Estrella and next spring.

FROM THE EARL MARSHAL

Greetings Outlanders!

Well, with the notable exception of the War of the Staked Plains in Scorpions Hollow which I would encourage any that are able to attend, there are not a lot of fighting activities on the calendar for the month of October. At this time of year however, there are often many local demos that you can support your local group by participating in. Demos are often a great way to get a chance to fight, to dress up, to look good, and hopefully interest a whole new group of people in the SCA. They are the place that many of us found the Society, so if you aren't getting enough fighting this month call your local officers and find out when and where a demo is and go fight!

Fight safe!

The Jackdaw & the Peacocks

Jupiter wanted to name a king of birds. He ordered all the birds to come before him on a certain day so he could pick the best-looking one. The jackdaw thought he was a pretty ugly bird, so he went around collecting feathers that had fallen off peacocks. He glued them to himself, and he really looked quite good. When the big day came, all the birds assembled, including our fancy jackdaw. Jupiter was about to make him the winner, but the peacocks got angry and pulled their feathers away from the jackdaw -- who left quickly after that.

Volunteers are needed for: Warranted marshal (all combat forms), warranted Lists officers, Chirurgeons, Constables (lots of these, especially at night!), Waterbearers, Gate, Headquarters, daily privy re-stocking (everyone will love you), hay bale moving, daily trash collection, final site cleanup and More! The Academy of Equestrian Arts cordially invites you to take part in the Equestrian events we have planned for GWWV. Bring your horse, or rent one on-site and get ready to ride! Sign-ups will be available for all events — please be sure to sign up in advance as events are subject to cancellation. Everyone is welcome and anyone interested in riding is encouraged to participate. (Children may also authorize to ride but must be at least 5 years old. A parent or guardian must be present FOR MINORS AT EACH EVENT, no exceptions.) You can bring your own horse or take advantage of the horses available for rent on-site. If you plan to rent, please call the Prado Equestrian Center directly: (909) 597-5757 and make reservations early. Rental horses are limited and offered on a first-come, first-served basis — they sell out every year.

If you plan to bring your own horse and require over-night stabling, a limited amount of stalls may be available through Prado Equestrian Center: (909) 597-5757. If available, stall fees are $10.00 per night which include alfalfa fed twice daily and clean-up once daily. Please call early to reserve a spot. If we run out of horse-accommodations, we may allow portable stalls to be set up at the center — details to follow. If you have any questions, or are interested in volunteering, please contact Christiaen de Groote (Kristin Fenton) — Academy of Equestrian Arts, (949) 888-8869 or email half_pass@hotmail.com 06/21

For more information, see our website <<http://www.greatwesternwar.org>> or contact the Event Stewards: Master Gareth Nicodemus Somerset (David Randrup) 25604 Amberleaff Road, Torrance, CA 90505 310-530-9390 and Lord Bartholomew Marchant of Studly Green (Brian Suskind) 104 North La Jolla Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90047, 323-653-0220 (before 9:00pm)

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the three (3) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
